From: Bill Turner

Subject: Former Dallas Patrolman Harry N. Olsen

On September 19, 1967 I went to the Doctors' Business Bureau, Heartwell Building Room 1210, 19 Pine Street, Long Beach, California, in an attempt to locate Olsen. Al Burns, manager, said Olsen no longer works for the firm but is employed in Orange County. He stated Olsen is trying to start a new life in California and completely sever his ties with Dallas. Burns has Olsen's telephone number at work (he would not say what the company is, but from jottings he made I presume it is Trans Continental), but had promised Olsen he would not give it out because several reporters have tried to find him. Burns reached Olsen by telephone and I talked with him. He did not want to be interviewed, stating everything he knew was in the Warren Commission testimony. I insisted that there have been additional developments which necessitate our talking to him. He asked if I had a subpoena; he did not want to become openly involved. I said no, but I could find him if it were necessary to get a subpoena. He agreed to be interviewed. We arranged to meet at a restaurant at Chapman and Harbor in Garden Grove.

The interview was cordial. Olsen said he himself has had his doubts about the Warren Report and has been following the attacks on the Commission with interest. He remarked that Arlen Specter, the Commission staff member who interviewed him, was singularly unimpressive and did not seem to be searching too hard for facts. He said he declared that Jack Ruby was a homosexual and Specter had it stricken from the record.

Olsen said he has been avoiding reporters because he does not want to get involved in the controversy. However, he is perfectly willing to assist this investigation provided his name is kept out of it. I agreed to proceed on that stipulation.

As a matter of interest, Olsen said one reporter did find him, somehow learning where he worked. The reporter was a Ted Mutch, who said he worked for a Dutch news service. Mutch exhibited a passport and overseas press card, and spoke with an accent. As a contact he left the address of an unnamed friend: 908D 12th St., Santa Monica, Cal., 213-394-3051. Olsen is suspicious of how Mutch found out where he worked, and did not accede to an interview.

The following is the relevant portion of a 1 1/2 hour session with Olsen.

In the summer of 1962 Jack Ruby left Dallas on a supposed trip to Havana via New Orleans to pick up an act. He was gone two weeks, returning without an act and uncharacteristically silent regarding the trip.

The only Cuban Olsen knew to be an associate of Ruby's was a young limbo dancer at the club, name not recalled. The dancer returned to Cuba in early 1963 and then back to the United States where he was sponsored by Ruby.

Asked if Ruby spoke Russian, Olsen said he heard him speak some foreign language, but that it could have been Yiddish.

Asked if he heard the name Jim Braden around Ruby's club, Olsen said the name was very familiar and he tended to associate it with a "high-roller" from Houston that Ruby was going to fix up with a girl.

Olsen stated Ruby had many friends in Houston. He recalled particularly a man in the outdoor sign business who was always accompanied by a business associate or bodyguard and drove a white Cadillac. This man come by the Carrousel off and on for some three years, and at the end was in the process of selling the sign business. Olsen said he was in his late 20s or early 30s.

Olsen advised that a patrolman named Bill Swafford was a frequent visitor to the Caroussel. The most frequent visitor, he said, was Gerry Hill (the sergeant who found shell casings at the Tippit shooting scene and was at the Texas Theatre), to whom Ruby was always giving six-packs of beer. Hill escorted FBI men to persons around the Caroussel locale and told the persons, "Tell the FBI what you know about Ruby." Olsen says that one of these persons cracked, "Why don't you, you knew him best." (It is noted that Hill was not questioned by the Commission vis a vis Ruby.)

Olsen did not know the nature of the relationship between Bertha Check and Ruby, but he did say that Check obtained many business leads from a man named O. L. Nelms, a shrewd entrepreneur who once bought and sold the Sanger-Harris department store, making $100,000 on the deal.

Olsen does not know Lewis McWillie. He was only vaguely familiar with Officer Tippit. He does not know what motorcycle policeman was particularly friendly with Ruby.

I asked Olsen if he knew Ray Brantley. Yes, he said, that is the Brantley with Ray's Gun Shop. He was busted once for sale of an automatic carbine and was sentenced to 1 and a half years. He feels Brantley would be in on a lot of fast-buck deals.

I asked Olsen about the Abundant Life Temple in Oak Cliff. He did not know anything about it specifically, but said there could well have been more going on there than met the eye. He mentioned a private club on Zangs as a possible place the Tippit killer could have ducked into. This club can be entered through a rear door only. It has an old mortuary sign in front, and would be on the east side of Zangs.

Olsen said that on the day of the assassination he was guarding a ramshackle house in Oak Cliff, sitting inside. He said an attorney had hired him to guard the property of a recent deceased person (this is apparently where some think Olsen was lying when he said he was guarding an "estate.") He heard the sirens but did not see anything himself.

Olsen stated that he believed George Senator had been living with Ruby for better than a year, but he lived "off base" for a month or two at a time when Ruby would bring home some "boy friend" to live with him.

I displayed an assortment of photographs to Olsen. He picked Gordon Novel as possibly identical to a man he saw leaving Ruby's Carousel one night. He could not be more specific. He picked Jim Hicks as possibly identical with a Jim Lee, who owned a beer joint a block from the Carousel (he no longer owns it). The photograph of Edgar Eugene Bradley evoked a definite response. Olsen is certain he has seen him before, most likely around Ruby's. However, he could not associate a name or activities with the person in the photograph.

Olsen said he was ousted by Chief Currie because it came out that he had been hanging around Ruby's club and going with a Ruby stripper. Asked whether this meant the Dallas police wanted him off the force because this tainted the department or because he might know too much about events peripheral to the assassination, Olsen replied he didn't know for sure but it could have been for both reasons.

By the conclusion of the interview, Olsen expressed a desire to help us in any way possible short of becoming openly involved. I had shown him photographs of Hall, Howard and Seymour, and he thought Hall looked familiar. He asked for copies of the photographs, as well as the photograph of Bradley. I did give him copies of the Hall-Seymour-Howard photos. I would guess that he wanted to show them to his wife, former Ruby stripper Kathy Kay. It is of course possible that he would report back to the FBI or some other agency as to what we are up to, although I am inclined to doubt that this is the case.

I gave Olsen my address and he will be in touch if he learns anything. At some future date it would probably be desirable to reinterview him, as this first interview seems to have only scratched the surface. He is not spontaneous in giving out information and it has to be somewhat pried out of him. Recontact with him must be made through Al Burns as The Doctors Business Bureau in Long Beach.

Patrolman HARRY OLSEN, 315 North Ewing Street, Dallas, was interviewed in Room 222, Methodist Hospital, Dallas, where he is recuperating from injuries received in an automobile accident. OLSEN furnished the following information:

He has been employed by the Dallas Police Department during the past five and one-half years. He has known JACK RUBY for two years and has been in RUBY's Carrousal Club on several occasions and has talked with RUBY on a number of times. He stated that he is a close friend of KAY COLEMAN, former employee of RUBY at this Carrousal Club. He advised that he has never lived RUBY, mainly because RUBY has objected to his associating regularly with Miss COLEMAN and for taking up so much of Miss COLEMAN's time.

He last saw RUBY at about 1:30 AM on either November 23 or 24, 1963, when he and Miss COLEMAN were sitting in his automobile on a parking lot at the corner of Jackson and Field Streets, Dallas, when RUBY drove by in his car, recognized them and stopped and talked with them for about ten minutes. RUBY did not state where he came from or where he was going on that occasion. RUBY was traveling west on Jackson Street and was alone at the time. He recalls that they all mentioned the assassination of President KENNEDY but RUBY said nothing to indicate he had ever seen or known OSWALD and did not appear to be any more upset over the tragedy than the average individual.

He has never known RUBY to carry a gun on his person but recalls that several months ago, when a burglar was suspected of being in the Carrousal Club, the police were called and he noticed RUBY carrying a gun in his hand inside the club. He suggested to RUBY that he should put his gun away and leave the matter to the police.

OLSEN stated that he has never been employed by RUBY and knows of no other police officers who may have been employed by him. He has never heard RUBY speak about politics or mention any strong like or dislike for President KENNEDY. He considers RUBY to be quick-tempered and unpredictable but would never have considered him to be capable of committing murder.

OLESEN stated that he has no information indicating that RUBY had any connection with OSWALD, that RUBY had any assistance in planning the murder of OSWALD or that RUBY was intentionally permitted to enter the basement area prior to shooting OSWALD.

OLESEN stated that to his knowledge GEORGE SENATOR a former roommate of RUBY, was about as close an associate of RUBY as anyone else. He has not talked with SENATOR concerning RUBY and knows of no pertinent information SENATOR may have. He added that a former police officer, namely RICHARD GENE SMITH, associated with RUBY several months ago.

SAMUEL C. SMITH, 5111 Homingside Street, Dallas, whose name, with his place of employment, Dallas Times-Herald, appeared in a list of items obtained from JACK RUBY's property taken from his automobile following his arrest by the Dallas Police Department, furnished the following information:

SMITH advised he is employed in the Advertising Department of the Dallas Times-Herald, and in this capacity he has known JACK RUBY for two and one-half years inasmuch as RUBY has come to him regularly about once each week for assistance in placing advertisements concerning RUBY's places of business. SMITH added that he has been to the Carousel Club on several occasions but has never had special contacts with RUBY. He last saw and talked with RUBY about 4:00 or 4:15 PM on November 21, 1963, when RUBY was at the Dallas Times-Herald Building in connection with advertisements. He noticed nothing out of the ordinary in RUBY's demeanor or conversation.

SMITH stated that he has never discussed politics with RUBY and has no information concerning RUBY's activities or whereabouts following the assassination of President KENNEDY. He stated he has no information indicating a connection between RUBY and LEE HARVEY OSWALD or regarding the shooting of OSWALD on the part of RUBY. He knows of no conspiracy which may have existed between RUBY and others in connection with the shooting area of City Hall prior to the shooting. He has never seen RUBY carrying a gun. Several months ago he recalls seeing a remark to RUBY that he should be afraid to carry a gun because on his part at the time he was carrying a gun. RUBY replied that he was not worried about anyone taking his money, which remark made SMITH assure that RUBY did carry a gun for his protection while carrying large sums of money.

SMITH stated that the only alias associated with RUBY he knows of is "BOB" and "BOB" SMITH. He stated that "BOB" is a common name in Dallas and that he has never seen the individual name

15. Harry N. Olsen (Dallas Policeman)

Two weeks ago we printed the story of Sgt. Dean. Let us entitle it: The Persistent Patrolman. This week we tell what we shall call The Forgetful Flatfoot. Harry N. Olsen was on private duty on the day of the assassination. He was guarding an estate. But he was unable to recall (1) the address of the estate; (2) didn't know who lived in the house and; (3) didn't remember the name of the officer who gave him the job.

Olsen's statement went like this:

MR. SPECTER. And what was your next occupation?

MR. OLSEN. Dallas Police Department.

SPECTER. What was your rank in the police department?

OLSEN. Patrolman.

SPECTER. And how long were you employed by the Dallas Police Department?

OLSEN. Five and a half years.

SPECTER. When did you end your employment with the Dallas Police Department?

OLSEN. In the latter part of December, 1963.

SPECTER. And how were you employed after December of 1963?

OLSEN. I left Dallas and came to California and am working for a collection agency.

SPECTER. Have you held that same job from the time you first arrived here in Los Angeles until the present time?

OLSEN. Yes, sir.

SPECTER. Are you married or single, Mr. Olsen?

OLSEN. Married.

SPECTER. And what is the name of your wife?

OLSEN. Kay.

SPECTER. And what was her name prior to her marriage to you?

OLSEN. Kay Coleman.

SPECTER. What was her occupation prior to being married to you, that is where was she employed?

OLSEN. She was employed at the Carousel Club.

SPECTER. When were you and Mrs. Kay Olsen married?

OLSEN. I believe it was December. It could have been January.

SPECTER. December of what year?

OLSEN. 1963, or January of 1964.

SPECTER. Do you know Jack Ruby?

OLSEN. Yes.

SPECTER. When did you first become acquainted with Mr. Jack Ruby?

OLSEN. Oh, about 3 years ago.

SPECTER. What were the circumstances of your making his acquaintance?

OLSEN. I was with the police department at the time and I was working that area where his club was, and it was a routine check of his place.

SPECTER. How did you and Jack Ruby get along during the time you knew him?

OLSEN. We spoke. And sometimes he would get mad and I would talk to him and calm him down a little bit.

SPECTER. How often did you visit Jack Ruby's club, the Carousel Club?

OLSEN. Oh, once a week, I guess. Sometimes more and sometimes less.

Bertha Cheek testified an officer named Olson told her that Jack Ruby needed some money to invest in a new club. The Commission did not try to determine if "OLSON" and "OLSEN" were the same man or if they were in any way related. Harry N. Olsen was the only man by that name listed on the Dallas Police Roster during 1963.

SPECTER. Did you ever have any disputes with Ruby?

OLSEN. Sometimes.

SPECTER. What was the cause of the disputes?

OLSEN. He would get mad with some of his help, some of his employees mostly, or customers. And he was erratic and hotheaded.

SPECTER. What specific indications did you observe that he was erratic or hotheaded?

OLSEN. Well, sometimes he would get so mad that he would stut.

SPECTER. What would cause him to get that mad?

OLSEN. Anything. I mean he would just fly off the handle about anything.

SPECTER. Can you give me a specific illustration of what caused him on any occasion to become that angry?

OLSEN. Mostly with his help.

SPECTER. A moment ago you said that you had disagreements with him over the way he treated his help. What was it about the way he treated his help which caused you to have any disagreement with Jack Ruby?

OLSEN. Well, they would want to quit and he would get upset about that.

SPECTER. Was that in relation only to Mrs. Kay Olsen who was an employee of his, or did that apply to other employees as well?

OLSEN. Others.

SPECTER. Why was it that you were concerned about other employees?

OLSEN. He would talk to me about it and ask me what I thought, and I would try to tell him to just calm down.

SPECTER. But as a result of those conversations with Ruby, you had disagreements with him?

OLSEN. Not very often. Not very often.

SPECTER. Can you give me any other information as to what caused any disagreement between you and Jack Ruby?

OLSEN. No, I can't think of anything.

SPECTER. Where were you living in the fall of 1963, say in September of 1963?

OLSEN. On Theatre Lane.

It would be helpful if we knew his address on Theatre Lane, but the Commission Attorney seemed not to think of such a question.

SPECTER. And where was Mrs. Kay Olsen, who was then not your wife, living at that time?

OLSEN. On Ewing.

SPECTER. What was her specific address, if you recall?

OLSEN. 325 North Ewing, I believe.

SPECTER. What was your relationship with Kay in the fall of 1963?

OLSEN. We were going together.

Some testimony omitted here.

SPECTER. Where did Mr. Ruby live in the fall of 1963, say September of 1963, if you know?

OLSEN. He lived on Ewing.

SPECTER. Do you recall—

OLSEN. Right at Stemmons Freeway.

SPECTER. How far was that from Kay's house?

OLSEN. Approximately 4 or 5 blocks.

Some testimony omitted here.

SPECTER. Do you know whether or not Jack Ruby knew Officer J. D. Tippit?

OLSEN. I heard that he did.

SPECTER. From whom did you hear that?

OLSEN. It was a rumor that he did.

SPECTER. When did you hear that rumor that he did know Officer J. D. Tippit?

OLSEN. While talking with other officers, I couldn't specifically say when.

SPECTER. Was that after Tippit was killed?

OLSEN. Yes.

SPECTER. Did you ever hear anybody say that Jack Ruby knew Officer J. D. Tippit before Officer Tippit was killed?

OLSEN. No, sir.

SPECTER. Could you recall specifically who it was who said that Ruby knew Officer Tippit?

OLSEN. No, sir.

SPECTER. Did you ever see Jack Ruby and Officer J. D. Tippit together?

OLSEN. No, not that I recall.

Some testimony omitted here.

SPECTER. Do you recall November 22, 1963, the day President Kennedy was assassinated?

OLSEN. Yes, sir.

SPECTER. Tell me, as specifically as you can recollect, exactly what your activities were on that day.

OLSEN. I was employed by the Dallas Police Department and I was working at an extra job guarding an estate.

SPECTER. Whose estate was that?

OLSEN. I don't remember the name.

SPECTER. How did you happen to get that extra job?

OLSEN. A motorcycle officer was related to this elderly woman and he was doing work, but he was in the motor—

SPECTER. Cade?

OLSEN. Motorcade of the President, and I was off that day and able to work it.

SPECTER. Do you recall the name of the motorcycle officer?

OLSEN. No.

SPECTER. Where was that estate located?

OLSEN. On 8th Street in Dallas.

SPECTER. Do you recall the specific address or the cross street on which it was located?

OLSEN. It's in the Oak Cliff area, it's approximately two blocks off of Stemmons.

The memory of Patrolman Olsen is bad, but the indifference of Commission Attorney Arlen Specter seems unpardonable. Olsen claims he can not remember the street address nor the name of the owner for whom he is working. Olsen says he can't even remember the name of the policeman, related to the estate owner, who gave Olsen the job. Could one wonder if Olsen was hiding something? Specter made no effort to determine on which side of the street the estate was located. He did not try to determine the color of the house. He did not ask how many stories tall the house on the estate was.

Olsen gave the wrong expressway as part of the address where he claimed he was working. Stemmons expressway is not in Oak Cliff. Olsen must have meant Thornton, but it seems to have mattered none at all to Specter.

There are no residences on 8th Street two blocks off of Thornton. A few shacks one block off Thornton could hardly be called estates. Three blocks off Thornton there are two apartment houses and one residence. Later testimony shows Olsen was probably more than four blocks away from Thornton Expressway.

We resume with the testimony.

SPECTER. What time did you start to guard the estate on that particular Friday?

OLSEN. About 7 a.m.

SPECTER. And how long did that guard duty last?

OLSEN. Until about 8.

SPECTER. Right p.m.?

OLSEN. P.m., Yes, sir.

SPECTER. Did you have any visitors while you were guarding the estate on that day?

OLSEN. Yes, sir.

SPECTER. And who was the visitor or visitors?

OLSEN. Kay.

SPECTER. What time did she visit you?

OLSEN. Right after the President was shot.

SPECTER. How did you learn of the assassination of the President?

OLSEN. A woman called me on the phone who was a friend of the person who had lived there.

SPECTER. Do you know who that woman was?

OLSEN. No, sir. And she wanted to know if I had heard the news, and I said no and she said, "The President has been shot."

SPECTER. What time did that telephone call occur?

OLSEN. Right after he was shot. I don't know exactly what time it was.

Did you talk to anybody else on the telephone or in person between the telephone call and the time that Kay visited you?

OLSEN. Passers-by. I went outside.

SPECTER. Whom did you see outside?

OLSEN. No one who I knew by name. They just said, "Have you heard the news?" And I said, "Yes, I had."

Olsen's location becomes important when one looks at the radio log printed in Vol. XXIII page 850 of the Warren Report Exhibits. The radio dispatcher inquired the location of officer J. D. Tippit. Tippit gave his location and his last radio signal from 8th and Lancaster.

The next most obvious question should have been asked of Olsen: "Did you see Patrolman Tippit?" Olsen says he was in the yard talking to passersby. Tippit radioed he was about that same location. Like so many times before—the question was never asked.

We return to the testimony with:

SPECTER. Where did you have lunch on that Friday?

OLSEN. There at the place that I was watching.

SPECTER. Where did you have supper that day?

OLSEN. At her house.

SPECTER. What time did you go to her house? And by "her" I take it you mean Kay's house?

OLSEN. Yes.

SPECTER. Then what time did you go to Kay's house?

OLSEN. When I got—when the motorcycle officer came and relieved me.

SPECTER. About what time was that?

OLSEN. Oh, 8; about 8.

SPECTER. Did you have an automobile?

OLSEN. No, sir.

SPECTER. How did you get from the house which you were guarding to Kay's house?

OLSEN. Walked.
SPECTER. How far was it?
OLSEN. About 4 blocks.
SPECTER. Did the cast on your knee restrict your walking in any material way?
OLSEN. Yes, sir.
SPECTER. Were you able to walk with the cast on your knee?
OLSEN. A little bit, not much.
SPECTER. But you were able to walk enough to cover those 4 blocks to Kay's house?
OLSEN. Yes. And it swelled after I had walked it.
SPECTER. What did you do after arriving at Kay's house?
OLSEN. Well, going back to that, I had crutches, I believe, that I used. Now, what was the question?

Kay Coleman lived a half block from 8th St. on Ewing which is two blocks from Thornton. Since Olsen says he walked four blocks to get to Kay's house, he must have been five or six blocks from Thornton. From the elevation on 8th St., six blocks from Thornton, a person in the yard could have seen Oswald when he crossed 8th St. on his walk from his rooming house to the spot where Tippit was killed. Olsen is not asked about Tippit or Oswald during this critical period.

Testimony is resumed concerning Olsen and Kay's activities and conversation with Ruby on Friday night in the next installment.

"His ethical ideas are simple and devoid of cant. He believes that any man deserves whatever he can get."

H. L. Mencken writing about Vice-President Charles G. Dawes

16. Olsen (Continued)

Now we shall continue with the testimony of the Forgetful Flatfoot. Harry N. Olsen was in a yard on 8th Street in Oak Cliff shortly after the assassination at a spot undetermined by the Commission. According to other things Olsen said this spot might have been six blocks from Thornton Expressway. At a spot six blocks from Thornton west on 8th Street, the elevation is such that a man in the yard could have seen Oswald on any of five streets if Oswald crossed 8th St. headed from his rooming house in the direction of Ruby's apartment. Oswald apparently chose Patton. From Olsen's likely location Oswald could have been observed on Patton, Deaver, Lake Cliff, Starr or Lansing streets.

Now we try to throw a little light upon the three hour discussion Olsen had with Ruby on Friday night. Because of his bad memory, Olsen could not recall specifically any of the things that were said. We point out the lack of thoroughness by the Commission in asking questions of Olsen concerning his possible connection with Mrs. Bertha Cheek. Mrs. Cheek will be written about on a later installment. The sudden departure of Olsen for the better climate of California is a matter of importance.

SPECTER. Did you go any place else?
OLSEN. We went to a garage.
SPECTER. Where was that garage located?
OLSEN. Jackson and Field.
SPECTER. What was the purpose of going to a garage at Jackson and Field?
OLSEN. We knew the man who worked there.

SPECTER. What was his name?

OLSEN. Johnny is all I know him by.

SPECTER. What sort of work did he do at that garage?

OLSEN. He was an attendant.

SPECTER. Why did you want to go see him?

OLSEN. To talk.

SPECTER. For any special purpose?

OLSEN. No, sir.

SPECTER. Do you recollect about what time you arrived at that garage?

OLSEN. Oh, 12, approximately.

SPECTER. Did you see Johnny when you were there?

OLSEN. Yes, sir.

SPECTER. Did you see anybody else while you were at that garage?

OLSEN. Yes, sir.

SPECTER. Who else did you see?

OLSEN. Jack Ruby.

SPECTER. Did you see anybody else besides Johnny and Jack Ruby?

OLSEN. Not that I remember; no.

SPECTER. Now, before seeing Ruby at the garage on that Friday night, when had you seen him most recently before that time?

OLSEN. It could have been a few days or a week.

SPECTER. Do you recall where it was that you saw him prior to this Friday night?

OLSEN. Oh, it was probably outside of his club.

SPECTER. Do you recall the specific instance, or are you just saying what you think probably occurred?

OLSEN. I am just saying what probably occurred, because I don't remember when I saw him before that.

SPECTER. Do you have any recollection what your conversation was with Mr. Ruby when you saw him prior to this Friday night?

OLSEN. No, sir.

SPECTER. How long did you talk to Mr. Ruby on this Friday night?

OLSEN. Two or three hours.

SPECTER. Who else was present at the time of the conversation?

OLSEN. Kay.

SPECTER. And anybody else?

OLSEN. Johnny.

SPECTER. Was there anybody besides Johnny and Kay and Jack Ruby?

OLSEN. Not that I remember.

SPECTER. Tell me as specifically as you can recall exactly what it was that Ruby said and what it was that you and Kay and Johnny said in reply to him.

OLSEN. We were all upset about the President's assassination, and we were just talking about how we hated it, that it was a tragedy.

SPECTER. Did Jack Ruby say something to that effect?

OLSEN. Yes; very strongly.

SPECTER. Do you recall what his exact words were, by any chance?

OLSEN. I believe he said something to the effect that "It's too bad that a peon," or a person like Oswald, "could do something like that," referring to shooting the President and the officer, Officer Tippit.

SPECTER. Did he say anything more about Oswald at that time?

OLSEN. He cursed him.

SPECTER. What specific language did he use?

OLSEN. S.o.b.

SPECTER. Was there any other specific curse that you recollect Ruby used in describing Oswald?

OLSEN. He could have said something else, but I remember that I'm sure that he did say something else, but I don't remember what it was.

SPECTER. Did he say anything at that time about whether or not he knew Oswald?

OLSEN. No, sir.

SPECTER. Did he say anything at that time about whether or not he knew Officer J. D. Tippit?

OLSEN. It seemed that he did know Officer Tippit.

SPECTER. Why do you say, "It seemed that he did know Officer Tippit"?

A man named Hardee, who ran the gambling concession for Ruby testified that J. D. Tippit was a frequent visitor to the club. The gambler also testified there was a motorcycle policeman who was very close to Ruby. He said there was a very special relationship between the two policemen and Jack Ruby. The Commission seems not to have tried to identify the motorcycle policeman.

OLSEN. I believe he said that Tippit had been to his club.

SPECTER. Recollect as specifically as you can exactly what he said about that, if you can, Mr. Olsen.

OLSEN. Something about Oswald shooting the President and Officer Tippit and leaving the wife and children, and he kept referring to Jacqueline.

SPECTER. Well, how about what you were referring to concerning Ruby's knowing Officer Tippit? What exactly did Ruby say at that time, to the best of your ability to recollect, about any relationship or acquaintanceship between Jack Ruby and J. D. Tippit?

*Assignment
Byfile*

OLSEN. Well, I just don't remember if there was anything specifically said about that.

SPECTER. What did you say to Ruby during that conversation?

OLSEN. I said it was a tragedy that this happened.

SPECTER. What did Johnny say to Ruby at that time?

OLSEN. And he said, yes; it sure was.

SPECTER. Did Johnny say anything else?

OLSEN. Well, we all talked. I don't remember what exactly was said.

SPECTER. Do you remember anything specifically that Kay said at that time?

OLSEN. No. It was a shame that it had happened.

SPECTER. Do you recall whether or not Kay said something to the effect that "In England they would have Oswald by his toes and drag him through the street?"

OLSEN. No, sir; I don't.

Some testimony omitted here.

SPECTER. Did Ruby mention anything about the Weissman advertisement that appeared in the Dallas papers earlier that day?

OLSEN. Yes, sir.

SPECTER. What did he say about that?

OLSEN. He said they shouldn't be open.

SPECTER. What Weissman advertisement had appeared earlier that day?

OLSEN. Just the usual ad in the paper about them being open.

SPECTER. Was there any advertisement in the paper that day containing derogatory statements about President Kennedy?

OLSEN. There was something in the paper, I believe, about somebody carrying banners in one part of town.

SPECTER. What kind of banners were those?

OLSEN. I believe they were about President Kennedy, and what they said, I don't remember what it was.

SPECTER. Do you remember Ruby's comment about that, or whether he made one?

OLSEN. I believe he did say something about that.

SPECTER. Do you recall what it was?

OLSEN. He said that it wasn't right, and "I just wonder how they feel about it now."

The Weissman advertisement certainly did not register with these people.

This officer's memory is the worst we have read. We will find a witness who will compare favorably with him when we print an installment on Mrs. Bertha Check.

SPECTER. Have you now told me everything you can remember about that conversation among you and Ruby and Kay and Johnny that night in the garage?

OLSEN. Between who?

SPECTER. Ruby, Kay, Johnny, and you at the garage the Friday night or early Saturday morning of the assassination.

OLSEN. I can't think of anything else. It was a conversation about what had happened to the President and Officer Tippit, and everyone was very upset about it.

SPECTER. What time, to the best of your ability or recollection, did that conversation end?

OLSEN. Two or three in the morning.

SPECTER. What did you do after that?

OLSEN. I took Kay home.

Some testimony omitted.

SPECTER. Did you see anybody else on Saturday besides Kay?

OLSEN. Yes, sir.

SPECTER. Who else did you see?

OLSEN. I saw Ruby Saturday night.

Attorney Melvin Belli was searching all over Dallas for this officer who had seen Ruby on both Friday and Saturday night, but Olsen was not to be found.

SPECTER. Where was it that you saw Ruby?

OLSEN. In front of his club.

SPECTER. The Carousel Club?

OLSEN. Yes, sir.

SPECTER. At what time was that?

OLSEN. Oh, 10 or 11 at night.

SPECTER. Did you speak to him?

OLSEN. No, sir.

SPECTER. What was the circumstances under which you saw him?

OLSEN. We were driving by and he was standing outside and we waved.

SPECTER. Did he see you and wave at you?

OLSEN. Yes, sir.

SPECTER. What did you do from the time you got to Kay's house until the time that you saw Ruby standing in front of his club on that Saturday night?

OLSEN. Watched some television and listened to the radio a little bit.

SPECTER. Did you see or talk to anybody else either in person or by telephone from the time you got to Kay's house until the time you saw Ruby that Saturday night?

OLSEN: No, sir; I don't guess we did.
SPECTER: What did you do after you saw Ruby in front of his club that Saturday night?
OLSEN: What did we do then?
SPECTER: What did you and Kay do then?
OLSEN: We drove by where the President was shot, we drove by there several times, and drove around town a little bit.
SPECTER: What time did you finish driving around town?

OLSEN: Oh, I guess 1 or 2.
SPECTER: In the morning?
OLSEN: Yes, sir.
SPECTER: Did you see anybody else you knew while you were driving around town?
OLSEN: We did, but I don't remember who it was.
SPECTER: Did you stop and talk to them?
OLSEN: Yes, sir. I don't remember who it was.

Some testimony omitted here.
In the story published in early 1964 by Jack Ruby, he tells of talking to an off-duty policeman for several hours on Saturday night. Ruby gallantly refused to give the name because the officer was married and going with a single girl. Olson's bad memory leaves the identity undetermined.

SPECTER: Where did you go when you finished driving around town?
OLSEN: I took her home.
SPECTER: What time did you arrive at her home?
OLSEN: I would say 2 or 3 in the morning.

Some testimony omitted here.

SPECTER: When did you end your employment with the Dallas Police Department?
OLSEN: The latter part of December.
SPECTER: What was the reason for leaving the Dallas Police Department?
OLSEN: I wanted to come to California.
SPECTER: Nobody at the Dallas Police Department asked you to leave?
OLSEN: Yes, sir.
SPECTER: Who asked you to leave the the Police department?

OLSEN: Chief Curry.
SPECTER: What was the reason for that?
OLSEN: I was out of sick time; in other words, you are allotted so much sick time a year, and he didn't want to extend me any more.

Olson was out of sick leave, so he was fired! Lieutenant George Butler, head of the Policeman's Union in Dallas for a number of years, must not have a very effective organization.

SPECTER: Was that the only reason why he asked you to terminate your employment with the police Department?

OLSEN: That was one of the reasons.
SPECTER: Was there any other reason?

(Long pause.)
OLSEN: I don't remember exactly what was said.

Possibly this man was fired for bad memory, but we doubt it. He seems to have a remarkably forgetful memory.

SPECTER: Was there any special reason why you went to California?

OLSEN: We heard the climate was nice out here.

We feel sure the climate in California was better than in Dallas during the late winter of 1963-64. The Ruby trial was held in Dallas in March of 1964.

SPECTER: Did you tell Bertha Check that Ruby was looking for a partner?

OLSEN: Well, who is Bertha Check?

SPECTER: You just don't recollect?

OLSEN: Did I tell Bertha Check that Ruby was looking for a partner?

SPECTER: Yes.

OLSEN: Not that I remember.

SPECTER: Did Ruby ever room at Bertha Check's apartment building?

OLSEN: Well, where is that?

SPECTER: Well, do you know of any Bertha Check who has an apartment building in Dallas?

OLSEN: Does she have the one on Gaston?

SPECTER: Did Ruby ever room at an apartment building on Gaston?

A police officer named Olson roomed at Bertha Check's apartment house, but Spector never asked Harry N. Olson if he was that same Officer.

Some testimony omitted. We resume with:

SPECTER: Do you know Lieutenant Butler?

OLSEN: Yes, sir.

SPECTER: Did you see or talk to Lieutenant Butler from the assassination until the 24th of November?

OLSEN: No, sir; I don't believe so.

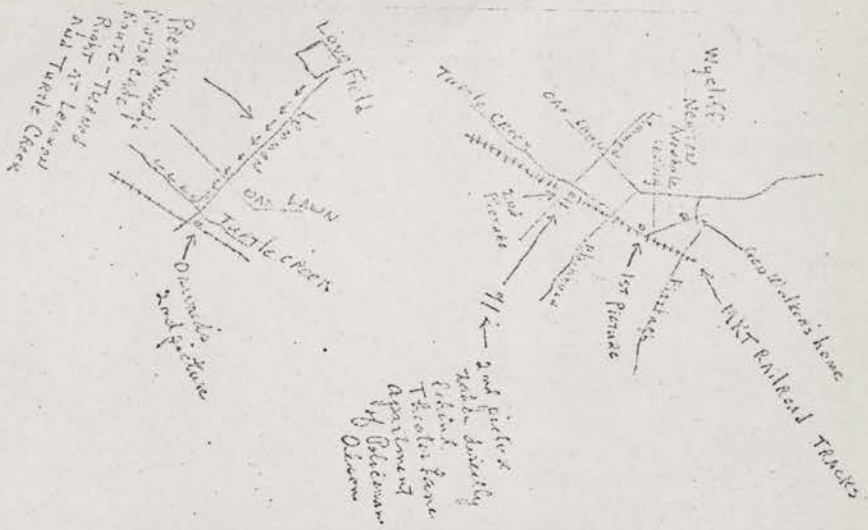

We have an installment on Lt. Butler in this book.

Re: Harry Olson

Please add one other item to the Cody memo.
This is coincidental - I am sure - but it bears notice -

Nancy Perrin Reck, who seems to have been the protégé of several police departments (more than just Dallas) used the last name "Cody" at times.

Please study the maps I am enclosing. I hoped they made them clear enough. If you don't get my "point", let me know and I'll try to be more explicit.
These Theater Lane apartments are so close to the MKT tracks, one gets the impression the trains are coming through the kitchen. Oswald took the second picture from the gate of one of these apartments.
There was no other place to stand and get this view -
Had he turned and taken the view to his left, he would have gotten a view of the corner where the motorcade turned onto Turtle Creek from a distance almost as close as the distance between the 6th floor and the 4th stripe". He was standing about 30 feet above Lemmon Avenue street level.

CHARLES MILLER, Clerk and Messenger, "Dallas Morning News", advised he has been casually acquainted with JACK RUBY for about the past year in connection with RUBY coming to the paper to place ads. he has never developed a personal acquaintance with RUBY and is not aware of his friends, associates, or habits.

MILLER stated he has been in the Carousel Club about three times during the past year. On several of the occasions, RUBY would write him an informal pass to attend the club while RUBY was at the paper to place an ad.

About six weeks or so ago, the last time that he saw RUBY at the newspaper, RUBY issued him a Carousel Club pass card number 138 issued in plastic.

On the night of Thursday, November 21, 1963, he and ROBERT LANDERS, another employee, went to the Carousel Club. They did not talk with RUBY at the club as the manager was being an introduction. RUBY was seen in the entrance way through giving away prizes. There was a disturbance by RUBY being in the entrance, who was seen to get the prizes away with foul language, telling OSWALD to get away, when the man refused to do. RUBY made a statement according to the witness that he wanted to be with OSWALD and that the manager this would be the end of the show.

 KAY HELEN COLEMAN, nee HARVEY, stage name KATHY KAY, 323 North Ewing, Dallas, Texas, currently appearing at the King's Club, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, advised she had remained at her residence in Dallas, Texas, until December 3, 1963, at which time she was booked at the King's Club in Oklahoma City. She denied departing Dallas, Texas, hurriedly after JACK RUBY shot LEE HARVEY OSWALD.

COLEMAN advised she was employed as an exotic dancer by JACK RUBY approximately two and one-half years ago and has worked for him at the Carousel Club since that time with the exception of a brief period during 1962 when she worked at the Colony Club in Dallas, Texas.

COLEMAN advised RUBY did not date the dancers at the club to her knowledge and that RUBY had never made advances to her at any time. She described RUBY as a person with definite opinions who felt a person who did not agree with him was, therefore, against him. She stated RUBY had never discussed politics with her or in her presence and advised the club business was apparently RUBY's main interest in life.

COLEMAN advised she had never seen LEE HARVEY OSWALD in the Carousel Club in Dallas and was certain there was no connection whatever between OSWALD and RUBY. She stated on first hearing that RUBY had shot OSWALD she felt he had done it for the publicity but after further thought she had been unable to arrive at any reason RUBY may have had.

COLEMAN advised she has dated HARRY GLENN, Patrolman, Dallas Police Department, presently hospitalized at the Methodist Hospital in Dallas, on a regular basis for over a year. She stated she and GLENN had discussed marriage but due to her recognition no wedding plans had been made. She advised GLENN's father is a preacher and though she has not GLENN's family they are not aware of her occupation. COLEMAN stated HARRY GLENN did not like JACK RUBY and seldom came to the Carousel Club. She pointed out RUBY discouraged boyfriends of the dancers at the club frequenting the club.

The advised GLENN's dislike for RUBY stems from RUBY's refusal to grant her days off.

COLEMAN advised GLENN was on his "days off" during the weekend of the assassination of President KENNEDY and the shooting of OSWALD. She further advised she and GLENN were together at the time a playback of the shooting of OSWALD appeared on television and GLENN had made no comment which would indicate any connection between RUBY and members of the Dallas Police Department. COLEMAN was of the opinion RUBY failed him way into the Police Department on the day he shot OSWALD. She stated RUBY was friendly to members of the Police Department and several Police Department officers attended the club occasionally and that RUBY occasionally picked up their tab.

COLEMAN advised RUBY had mentioned being from Chicago, Illinois, and having had a hard time as a child and young man but he was never specific about his background or activities in the Chicago area and did not discuss his activities away from the Carousel Club with her at any time.

 MISS JENNIE'S GARAGE

Date September 1, 1964

JOHN J. SIMPSON

By letter dated August 25, 1964, the President's Commission on the Assassination of President Kennedy requested that one "Johnny" (Last Name Unknown), an employee in November, 1963, of a parking garage near the corner of Jackson and Field Streets, in Dallas, Texas, be located and interviewed regarding a conversation on Saturday morning, November 23, 1963, between Harry Olsen, his wife, and Jack Ruby.

Attached are the results of the interview of John J. Simpson, Jr., Hurst, Texas, who is known as "Johnny", and who on Saturday morning, November 23, 1963, was employed at Simon's Garage, 1300 Jackson, corner of Field Street, Dallas, Texas.

JOHN J. SIMPSON, JR., advised he resides with his parents, Mrs. MARY ALLEN, at 711 Greenwood Drive, Hurst, Texas, and is currently employed as a service station attendant at the Gulf Service Station located at the corner of Pipe Line Road and Harrison Lane, Hurst, Texas.

SIMPSON advised that he is commonly known by the nickname of "JOHNNY". He stated that from late Friday night, November 22, 1963, until 6:00 a.m., Saturday morning, November 23, 1963, he was employed as the night parking attendant at Simon's Garage, 1300 Jackson, Dallas, Texas.

He recalls that around 1:00 a.m., Saturday morning, November 23, 1963, a Dallas police officer named OLSEN, (whom SIMPSON believes is no longer employed as a Dallas police officer) came to Simon's garage and got his car. OLSEN then pulled up to the garage exit to wait for his girl friend, name unknown, who was working as a dancer at JACK RUBY's night club, located just one block away on Commerce Street. When the girl friend came and got into OLSEN's car, they started to drive off, but the girl apparently saw JOHN RUBY walking down the street and she pulled a parking ticket. RUBY called back, and OLSEN stopped his car when RUBY came up to the car to talk to OLSEN and the girl.

SIMPSON stated that RUBY, the girl, and OLSEN must have conversed at least an hour and possibly longer at this time by the garage.

SIMPSON stated he did not take part in any of the conversation and does not know what the three talked about. He does recall having overheard RUBY remark that he had been to police headquarters that same night and had taken coffee and eats to the police officers. SIMPSON stated he knows JACK RUBY

Dear Mr. Rankin:

Reference is made to your letter of September 7, 1964, requesting that the files of the FBI be examined with respect to Eva Grant, Ralph Paul, George Senator, Brock Wall, Karen Bennett Carlin, Bruce Ray Carlin, Harry N. Olsen and Kay Helen Coleman (Mrs. Harry N. Olsen) for any information therein indicating that these persons were possible members of the Communist Party or engaged in other subversive activities.

By letter dated June 1, 1964, the President's Commission previously requested a similar check of our files with respect to Ralph Paul, George Senator and Brock Wall and you were advised by my letter of June 15, 1964, that the files of this Bureau do not contain any information of a subversive nature or otherwise concerning these individuals other than information which has been furnished to the President's Commission in connection with the investigation regarding Jack L. Ruby.

With respect to Eva Grant, Karen Bennett Carlin, Bruce Ray Carlin, Harry N. Olsen and Kay Helen Coleman, a check of the files of this Bureau does not reveal any information identifiable with these persons which would indicate they have ever been members of the Communist Party or engaged in other subversive activities.

Sincerely yours,
